

RANMORE

consulting development coaching modelling targeting e-knowledge

Associate Profile

Dr Alister Wilson

A research scientist by original training Alister now specialises in scenario planning, futures thinking and strategic change management and is an experienced facilitator of strategic processes.

The following lists some illustrative projects on which he has worked;

Scenario Planning and Futures Thinking

- member of the design team and senior facilitator in DTI's futurefocus@dti facility;
- joint facilitator of Scenarios for Africa workshop for DfID;
- scenario development for Glasgow's education sector;
- scenario development for the energy sector
- review and evaluation of Scottish Enterprise's scenario planning and scanning processes;
- facilitation of scenario planning exercise to inform the development of Glasgow and Clyde Valley Joint Structure Plan;

Training

- Scenario Planning training (Cabinet Office, DfID, SEPA);
- Strategy process (Cabinet Office Top Management Programme);
- Futures Techniques training (Foresight);
- Facilitation training for scenario planners (customers include DTI, Scottish Enterprise Borders and TFPL Ltd);

Job History

April 2002 – Date	Independent Management Consultant and Senior Associate of Ranmore Consulting
1999 - 2002	Frontline Consultants, Senior Consultant
1998 - 1999	Scottish Enterprise, Head of Policy, Skills Directorate
1991-1998	Scottish Enterprise, Strategy Manager
1987 - 1991	Scottish Development Agency, Business Development Executive
1984-1987	Beecham Pharmaceuticals, Research Scientist

Education

1979-84	BSc, PhD, University of Edinburgh (Molecular Biology)
---------	---